

STUDENT GOVERNANCE SUMMIT

FEBRUARY 4, 2024
GOUCHER COLLEGE

Collegetown welcomed 92 student leaders from ten institutions to the sixth annual Student Governance Summit, an opportunity for students to collaborate with peers from area colleges and universities. Throughout the day students networked with one another, participated in roundtable discussions, and attended breakout sessions on how to run an effective meeting, stress management and self-care, difficult conversations and ways to cultivate a neuro-affirming campus.

INSTITUTIONS REPRESENTED:

Coppin State University	Loyola University Maryland	Notre Dame of Maryland University
Goucher College	MICA	Towson University
Johns Hopkins Peabody Conservatory	Morgan State University	University of Baltimore
		UMBC

SUMMIT GOALS:

- Participants will identify ways to increase overall student government engagement and/or participation on campus.
- Reflect on their roles as student leaders.
- Connect with other student governance leaders from other institutions.
- Build community and network across institutions.
- Develop leadership skills.
- Learn how to manage, leader, and navigate being an SGA member.

IMPACT:

According to evaluation responses, students liked the opportunity to network and learn from one another. Some areas for improvement include more time devoted to learning about other student governments and having more time for group discussions.

Student learning outcomes data on a scale from 1 to 5, with 1 being very ineffective and 5 being very effective:

I connected with student governance leaders from other institutions.	4.55
I discussed current student government topics/issues and possible next steps.	4.45
I identified ways to increase overall student government engagement and/or participation on campus.	4.30
Overall summit satisfaction	4.25

QUOTES FROM STUDENTS:

"It was very fun and informative."

"This was amazing!"

"The roundtable discussion was the most useful part of the summit and the dialogue was very helpful."

"Very informative. I learned a lot!"
